

“How research is changing our NHS”

Ceri Jones

Head of Research & Development

Improved patient care

Research active hospitals have better patient outcomes

GI cancer

OPEN ACCESS

ORIGINAL ARTICLE

High hospital research participation and improved colorectal cancer survival outcomes: a population-based study

Amy Downing,<sup>1,2</sup> Eva JA Morris,<sup>1,2,3</sup> Neil Corrigan,<sup>4</sup> David Sebag-Montefiore,<sup>1,2,5</sup> Paul J Finan,<sup>5,6</sup> James D Thomas,<sup>6</sup> Michael Chapman,<sup>7</sup> Russell Hamilton,<sup>8</sup> Helen Campbell,<sup>8,9</sup> David Cameron,<sup>10,11</sup> Richard Kaplan,<sup>10,12</sup> Mahesh Parmar,<sup>12</sup> Richard Stephens,<sup>13</sup> Matt Seymour,<sup>1,2,5,10</sup> Walter Gregory,<sup>4</sup> Peter Selby<sup>1,2,5</sup>

Research-active trusts have better patient outcomes, study shows

Date: 19 March 2015

A study published in February, showed that patients cared for in research-active acute NHS trusts have better outcomes.

The results of the research, published in an international, peer-reviewed journal Gut, demonstrated a direct association between higher levels of research activity and lower rates of patient mortality following emergency admissions.

140
Researchers

120+
staff

170
Papers

5113
patients

28
specialties

400+
projects

2007

No treatment for Autosomal
Dominant
Polycystic Kidney Disease

DRUGS

2015

NICE approval
Clinics at UHCW

University Hospitals
Coventry and Warwickshire
NHS Trust

DIAGNOSTICS

University Hospitals
Coventry and Warwickshire
NHS Trust

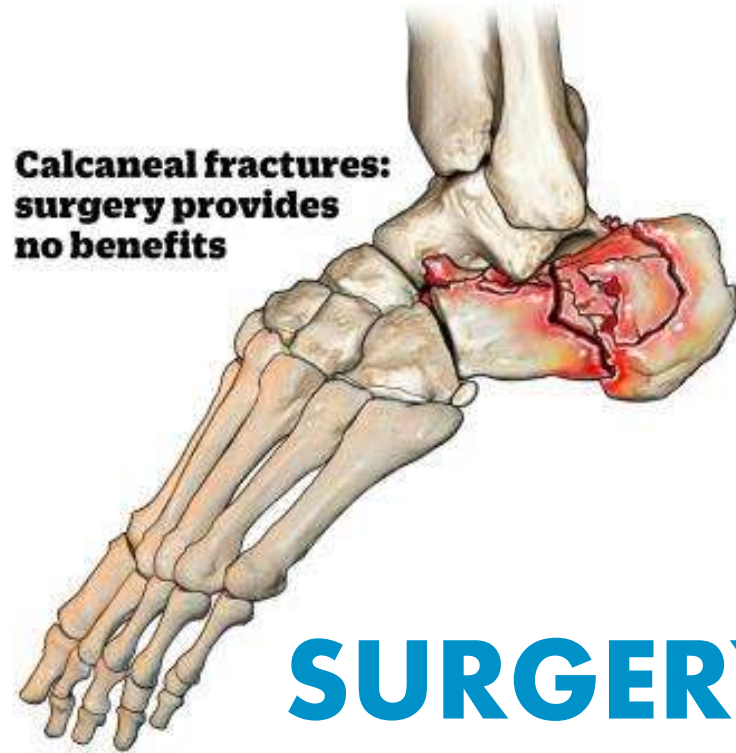

3 August 2015
ISSN 0959-5102 (print) 1344-5703 (online)

HPV vaccination for boys
Deciding which medicines should join WHO's essential list

Should research fraud be regarded as a crime?
Non-alcoholic fatty liver disease
CPD/CME hours

Calcaneal fractures:
surgery provides
no benefits

SURGERY

University Hospitals
Coventry and Warwickshire
NHS Trust

What about Rugby?

- NHS Patient Survey

"During this hospital stay, did anyone discuss with you whether you would like to take part in a research study?"

Rugby St Cross      Rating = 2.31

University Hospital Rating = 1.75

What about Rugby?

- Trauma & Orthopaedics
- Ophthalmology
- Plans:
  - increase awareness / opportunity / capacity
  - sleep unit, dermatology, elderly care (dementia / frailty)
  - tissue collection and storage

Thank You

Follow us on Twitter @UHCW\_RandD

Research.PPI@uhcw.nhs.uk

University Hospitals
Coventry and Warwickshire
NHS Trust